

Consultant for Gender Based Violence and Child Labor Trafficking

Company: CARD Foundation

Location: Yerevan, Armenia

Duration: 3 years

Start date: ASAP

Term: Flexible, result based

Job description: CARD Foundation is looking for a consultant/organization who will work for “Rural Economic Development-New Economic Opportunities (RED-NEO)” project funded by USAID. Within the frames of the mentioned project, it is planned to empower women entrepreneurs in agricultural sector of Armenia. To that end, the hired consultant/organization is expected to provide support to Gender Based Violence (GBV) victims in form of preventive actions and response tactics.

Job responsibilities:

- Partner with government of Armenia, CSOs and other stakeholders involved in GBV prevention and response to raise awareness among women of safe spaces for women to share their experiences, express their concerns, and develop their own solutions.
- Raise awareness of women agripreneurs, female farmers, and local government officials on the worst forms of child labor and work place hazards and safety standards.
- Provide legal, psychosocial, and medical services to beneficiaries who become victims of GBV through allocating activity funds for emergency response to address unintended consequences of GBV.
- Conduct gender training for beneficiaries, national and local government officials to sensitize on gender issues, including GBV, and gendered stereotypes restricting women’s economic participation and leading to harmful attitudes and practices towards women across a range of economic sectors and industries.
- Work with community men and boys to prevent GBV and empower women agripreneurs.

Required qualifications:

- Master’s degree in Economics, Psychology or relevant professions
- Soft skills including communication, negotiation, presentation etc.
- Solid background on working with GBV victims and related institutions
- Fluency in English and Armenian, Russian fluency is a plus

Application procedures: Interested applicants are requested to send their CVs to cardjobs@card.am indicating position title in the subject line.

Salary: Commensurate with experience

About company: CARD Foundation is an agriculture development organization implementing development projects in all subsectors of Agriculture through donor organizations’ funds. For more information please visit card.am.